Real Estate Professional

Hello,

My name is Keya Grable, and I am a proud Real Estate Professional. I have lived and worked in the Southern Nevada area for more than 50 years. I grew up going to schools in Henderson, Indian Springs, and Las Vegas. Those many years have given me a rare historic view of the growth in our valley. I love Las Vegas and that is why I have choose to be a Real Estate Professional here. Through my past careers in the law enforcement field, I have developed a strong sense of right and wrong that I live by. In watching the real estate industry over the past decade or so, I believe it has developed into a worthy honorable industry that I can trust in. I know through my training I can and will look out for the client's best interest and work within the limits of the real estate industry to produce a positive outcome on your behalf. I am committed to meeting your needs and representing you responsibility and professionally.
